

Graduation is a time of celebration. A well earned degree, a look to the future, a time of reflection on past accomplishments and of dreams to be fulfilled. You deserve the finest quality apparel, whether it be the future use in ministry or academic regalia for future use in your teaching or professional career. Your choice of Abbott Hall brand quality apparel will provide and compliment your high quality standards as you continue in your professional career.

A Classic Tradition. Pride in your degree is reflected by the academic gown you wear. An elegant, authentically tailored gown, custom made to your measurements is now available. Every detail is academically correct giving you the assurance that you are wearing the classic gown.

Our wide selection of fabric allows you to choose the right one for you. No matter what your academic profession a custom cap and gown will provide you with traditional style that has become a classic.

