the CAMELOT

As beautiful as its name, the CAMELOT gown, features double-spaced banding on the sleeve. The contrasting colored yoke, front panels and sleeve bands create a pleasing and symmetrical look.

the IMPERIAL

Adorned with colored front panels and banding on the sleeves, the IMPERIAL style, becomes a work of art.

The reversible AHS 28 stole with contrasting color one side and contrasting banding on the other highlights this gown's beauty. The AHS-28 stole and embroidery are priced extra.
